

‘Freedom – The Eternal Call of Our Hearts’

“You can't separate peace from freedom because no one can be at peace unless he has his freedom,” said Malcolm X, a leader in the civil rights movement in the US half a century ago, and how right he was. Freedom and peace are inextricably tied together because when someone knows at a deep level they are not free, it violates the freedom of the Soul that lies at very core of their being, a state which inevitably causes them distress and dis-ease in their minds and leads equally inevitably to the stress and disease that are so prevalent in Westernised societies today.

In the Western world, we supposedly live in ‘free’ societies, but if you scratch the surface of this appearance a bit, the truth of the matter starts to reveal itself. This can be done by simply asking yourself a few simple but penetrating questions and doing an honest inquiry into the answers, questions such as:

- “If I didn’t work for 3 months, how would my life be affected?”
- “What value do I get for the taxes, tolls and levies I pay to the government and various authorities and why am I paying them at all?”
- “Why is there currently a worldwide economic recession and why have there been repeated cycles of boom and recession in local economies and now the global economy over the last 100 years?”
- “Who really runs my country and the world, and what is their agenda?”

Try answering these questions for yourself as an exercise before continuing to read this article... So, how did that go? Did you find you had some difficulty in answering these questions honestly, or at all for that matter? Did you discover that you are not really free at all, but controlled by powers and authorities that are beyond your full understanding and control? The truth is that there are seemingly powerful forces in the world whose agenda is anything but the freedom of those whom they seek to control and manipulate. I will attempt to answer the questions I have posed above in more detail below to help you to understand more fully what is really going on in the world and why freedom is really just an illusion for most people living in a Westernised society.

- “If I didn’t work for 3 months, how would my life be affected?”

For most people working in a job, the answer is: dramatically. The simple equation for most employees is: No job = No salary = No money to pay bills and debts = Loss of house and car = Loss of ability to earn a living = Destitution

And it is this fear of loss and ultimate poverty that controls the majority of employees, causing them to keep working in jobs they don’t enjoy doing work they find fairly meaningless in order to earn a salary and avoid the occurrence of the above mentioned sequence of events, which is unfortunately still a distinct possibility due to the prevalence of retrenchment in companies struggling to stay in business in the current economic recession. This fear permeates the entire organisation, creating a negative environment in which to work that negatively affects performance and profit, which in turn creates more fear and a greater likelihood of retrenchment in the average employee's mind, so feeding a vicious and destructive cycle of negative events that inevitably leads to the destitution of individuals and sometimes even the whole business.

- “What value do I get for the taxes, tolls and levies I pay to the government and various authorities, and why am I paying them at all?”

If you live in South Africa, the answer is ‘very little’. You must still pay for your medical aid, children's education, pension contributions and much else while watching the roads and other infrastructure in the country deteriorate through the neglect of government authorities who are supposed to use your tax money to maintain and upgrade the country's infrastructure. The new tolls on the highways in Gauteng supposedly to pay for their recent upgrading and further upgrading over 20 years are in reality just another way to fleece people of their hard-earned money – according to economist Mike Schussler, the cost per kilometre of the road improvements is between 106% and 228% more expensive than comparable road improvement projects in other parts of the world, and the projected income of South African Roads Agency Limited (SANRAL), the agency tasked with the upgrading process, will make a profit of over R100 million per month once the already inflated cost of this construction has been paid – R300 million in monthly income will be generated from the Gauteng tolls with the current proposed toll fees and the monthly cost of construction will be only R193 million. To whom is all this profit really going, one wonders? Could there just possibly be corruption involved? Given that hardly a week goes by without another instance of corruption and graft in government at some level or another being exposed, that is almost certain, and the corruption that is exposed is just the tip of a very rotten iceberg.

In South Africa, a significant part of your tax money, probably the part that is supposed to be used for road improvement, is also used for paying social welfare grants to the poorest people in the country, which on the face of it may seem to be humanitarian, but in fact keeps them in a poverty stricken situation forever dependent on the State for the small amount of income they receive, which in turn buys their loyalty to a corrupt government in the next election, so keeping the current ANC government in power. Another large portion of every Rand of tax you pay – just under 40%, in fact – goes to pay public servants, most of whom will also vote for the hand that feeds them, and 8% goes just to pay interest to service the loans to various international institutions like the World Bank and International Monetary Fund before any capital repayments are even made – see below for more about these thoroughly corrupt institutions below.

If you are living in another country, the situation will be somewhat different, but probably not dissimilar. You may receive some benefits for your taxes, such as free medical services and education, but your hard-earned money paid in taxes may also have been used to pay for a billion-dollar bailout of a bank, a war, government corruption and various other misuses of the money you have entrusted to your government in the last few years and, if you are honest, you will have to admit that you are almost certainly not aware of other areas where your money may have been misused. And given the size of some countries' national debts - many nearly or over 100% of annual GDP - a large proportion of your tax money has probably been paid to the World Bank and International Monetary Fund as interest on loans made to your government. Ask yourself if you are really receiving value for your taxes and be willing to be ruthlessly honest about the inquiry this question provokes and you may find that you discover some uncomfortable truths.

- “Why is there currently a worldwide economic recession and why have there been repeated cycles of boom and recession in local economies and now the global economy over the last 100 years?”

The current recession is symptomatic of a systemic flaw in the world economic system that is based on debt and interest that must be paid on that debt, which has caused inflation and a massive increase in the money supply over decades that has not been matched by an equivalent growth in the Gross Domestic Product (GDP) of countries and the world as a whole. This disparity between money supply and real goods and services that can be exchanged, the facilitation of which exchange is the reason money was originally invented, means that there is far more money in circulation than is necessary to facilitate the exchange of these goods and services. This ‘monopoly’ money is used for paying interest on an ever-increasing debt and for trading various ‘derivatives’ – paper assets such as shares, options and bonds that derive their value from so-called ‘real’ assets and commodities that often don’t really exist at all (hence the term ‘junk’ bonds).

As the debt and interest give rise to the rest of the systemic problems outlined above, understanding how these originate is evidently critical to understanding the root cause of these systemic problems and solving them. So how does debt first arise? Through the World Bank, International Monetary Fund and central banks in various countries issuing currency that must be repaid with interest by the government and retail banks, who in turn collect that interest in the form of taxes paid by taxpayers and interest on loans. This currency is called ‘fiat’ currency because it has nothing of any value backing it and is merely brought into being by the decree of these self-appointed authorities (‘fiat’ means ‘an arbitrary order or decree’ and is derived from the Latin word ‘fiat’ which means ‘let it be done’).

‘And who gave these institutions the right to issue this currency?’ you may well ask. Various governments did by passing legislation that granted these privately owned and controlled central banks the power to print and issue the money of their countries at the instigation of a few powerful families, who (surprise, surprise!) happen to own and control these central banks, as well as the World Bank, International Monetary Fund and all other major international financial institutions. So these central banks and the families that control them literally have a licence to print money that has nothing of any real value backing it and then to earn interest from this ‘monopoly’ money, which means that they have been accumulating extraordinary amounts of this monopoly money over the last few hundred years - don't believe the 'official' lists of the world's richest people for a minute, as these families have trillions and trillions of dollars of accumulated wealth at their disposal.

The power to control the money supply of countries and the world also gives these families the power to control the lives of individuals and organisations and the destiny of countries and the whole world, unfortunately not a power that they use for the greater good of humanity, but rather to pursue evil goals of controlling, manipulating, starving, killing and stealing from millions of people, which is one of the main reasons there is so much poverty, death, disaster and human suffering in the world today. This power to issue money gives them the power to flood the economy with money by deliberately giving easy credit terms and then to deliberately contract the money supply so there is not enough money in the economy to repay the capital and interest on loans people have taken out, causing them to default on the loans and allow the banks to repossess the assets people have bought on credit after they have paid off much or all of the capital amount of the original loans.

Even worse, the banks never give any valuable consideration for these loans – the capital amount of the loan is brought into existence through the signature of the person taking out the loan based on a promissory note that person signs promising to pay the bank the capital amount of the loan plus interest. So the bank never has anything to lose on a loan because it never risked anything of value in the first place and the security they demand in the form of an asset is there to give them a way to steal that asset from someone by deliberately contracting the money supply to deprive people of the money they need to make their repayments on these fictitious loans, as explained above. The whole loan agreement is clearly fraudulent and therefore null and void in common law because no valuable consideration was ever offered by the bank, which deliberately misled the person taking out the loan into believing that there was valuable consideration given by the bank with the intent of defrauding that person of their hard-earned money and stealing the asset for which the loan was purportedly given.

So, to give the real answer to the question of why there is such a severe recession and there have been repeated cycles of boom and bust over the last hundred years in local economies and the world economy, it's the fact that the whole financial system that underlies the economy is fraudulent and motivated by fear and greed, which are both negative and destructive energies that can only lead to death, chaos and the eventual collapse of whatever system they have brought into existence. The world is in the throes of the chaos caused by the collapse of the fraudulent global financial system, and yet most people, even so-called financial 'experts', do not want to admit that the system is collapsing and prefer to see it as just another cycle that will right itself in the course of time, rather like the people in the time of Noah who would not listen to his warnings of the coming catastrophe, even when it started raining.

Of course, neither can they see that the so-called 'catastrophe' offers us as a species the unique opportunity to create a new financial system that serves the principles of love, peace, fairness and equality rather than fear, greed, war and inequality, which is an integral part of creating a brave new world where the Spirit of love that lies dormant in the majority of the people living on this planet can be liberated from the fetters of the economic and financial control system that currently keeps it hidden in their minds under layers of fear and all its associated negative emotions, and people of all nations and races can live harmoniously together in a healthy, symbiotic relationship with nature.

- “Who really runs my country and the world, and what is their agenda?”

Having read the answers to the questions above, it is obvious that whoever controls the issuing of currency is really in control of countries and the world. In fact, Mayer Amschel Rothschild of the infamous Rothschild family, one of the key families mentioned above who control the world's central banks, said the following “Give me control of a nation's money supply, and I care not who makes its laws.” Their agenda is fairly obvious: total control of people's lives and hence the world through the financial, economic and legal systems they have created, and ultimately, one world government to create a ‘New World Order’ that enslaves humanity and wipes out billions (yes, billions!) of so-called ‘undesirable’ people to reduce the number of people on this planet to a more manageable and controllable level.

This is hardly a new agenda, as megalomaniacs have been trying to conquer the world and build empires since the beginning of recorded human history, but what makes this attempt by the current bunch of psychopaths particularly diabolical and more likely to succeed than ever before is that it is conquest not by force, but by much more subtle mechanisms of control, such as society's legal and financial systems that are held up in the mass media and so in mass consciousness to be ‘the law’ and ‘the right thing to do’. Even more insidious, the plan that is being put into operation now was conceived a hundred years ago in the United States of America, from which it spread to most other Westernised countries in the world. In 1912, Edward Mandell, one of the architects of the plan, said this:

“[Very] soon, every American will be required to register their biological property in a national system designed to keep track of the people and that will operate under the ancient system of pledging. By such methodology, we can compel people to submit to our agenda, which will effect our security as a chargeback for our fiat paper currency. Every American will be forced to register or suffer being unable to work and earn a living. They will be our chattel, and we will hold the security interest over them forever, by operation of the law merchant under the scheme of secured transactions.

Americans, by unknowingly or unwittingly delivering the bills of lading to us, will be rendered bankrupt and insolvent, forever to remain economic slaves through taxation, secured by their pledges. They will be stripped of their rights and given a commercial value designed to make us a profit and they will be none the wiser, for not one man in a million could ever figure our plans and, if by accident one or two should figure it out, we have in our arsenal plausible deniability. After all, this is the only logical way to fund government, by floating liens and debt to the registrants in the form of benefits and privileges. This will inevitably reap to us huge profits beyond our wildest expectations and leave every American a contributor to this fraud which we will call “Social Insurance”. Without realising it, every American will insure us for any loss we may incur and in this manner, every American will unknowingly be our servant, however begrudgingly. The people will become helpless and without any hope for their redemption and, we will employ the high office of the President of our dummy corporation to foment this plot against America.”

The system foreseen above by Edward Mandell has been operating in most Westernised countries, including South Africa, for the best part of the last hundred years and will culminate in the ‘New World Order’ that will effectively enslave almost every person on earth to the will of these megalomaniac psychopaths who conceived this Machiavellian scheme for totalitarian world government that relies on the Luciferic inversion of truth and the belief of the masses in the truth of this lie to succeed. That Luciferic inversion is the belief that the laws of the land as created by the government of the time are true and just and it is ethical and moral to follow these laws, which, if you look at history, is clearly a ridiculous belief. Was ‘apartheid’ in South Africa ethical? Were the laws in Nazi Germany in terms of which millions of Jews were murdered moral? Were any laws passed and upheld by any of the tyrants who have run despotic regimes in the past just? I rest my case.

So why then do most people obey these laws that were conceived by the same kind of Satanic psychopaths as Hitler and other similar despots and tyrants who have wanted only to control, kill, maim and torture millions upon millions of people? The simple answer to that is ‘fear’ – fear of acknowledging the truth because of what that recognition calls one to do. Because once you know the truth, you can no longer pretend that everything is OK and live your life in a comfortably numb state of ignorance, focussing only on the detailed business of avoiding pain by paying your taxes, mortgage and debts and craving the temporary pleasures money can buy at the price of the deeper meaning and purpose that only a life dedicated to the truth can bring. And it is only by letting go of all false ideas and beliefs and living in unwavering awareness of truth at all times, in all places, through all circumstances, without exception, that we find the true freedom that lies buried within our own minds and hearts. This freedom is liberation from the lies our sense of separate identity, known as our ego, tell us about who we are and why we are in the world, the only real freedom that comes when we unite with our true, divinely created Self and live through this Self in a state of unconditional love, inner peace and boundless joy.

When you start to live from this true Self rather than your ego, you can see through and are no longer able to tolerate and co-operate with the lies and deceit that are so prevalent in the world. This is why spiritual masters can always see through the lies and deceit of the authorities of their time and are fearless in exposing them to the people – Jesus repeatedly highlighting the lies and hypocrisy of the Pharisees and Sadducees, the Jewish priesthood that controlled Jewish society in his day, being a case in point. Jesus understood that in order to see the truth of who you are, you must first see and acknowledge the lies about yourself and the world that you have believed in and let them go, which is the process of forgiveness that he so emphasized in his teaching.

Jesus understood perfectly that it is only by first acknowledging the illusions of guilt, sin and fear in our own minds by recognising their apparent effects projected out into the seemingly external world, such as the Machiavellian schemes of psychopathic megalomaniacs discussed above, and then letting them go by forgiving the external effects or projections of these sick thoughts away as the unreal illusions they really are, can we attain a perfect awareness of our unity with God, which is known as the state of enlightenment. In practical terms, this means that we need to deny the reality of anything in this world that does not originate from unconditional love, such as the rules, laws and practices the people behind the banking system have created to enslave the majority of people. As Jesus says in my favourite book, A Course in Miracles, “To know Reality is not to see the ego and its thoughts, its works, its acts, its laws and its beliefs, its dreams, its hopes, its plans for its salvation, and the cost belief in it entails.”

Such denial might take the form of simply ignoring them, passively resisting them or taking action to undo their effects, something which is beyond the scope of this article to address. If this article resonates with what you know to be true and you are fed up with being extorted through paying interest on fraudulent debt and taxes to a corrupt government, the good news is that there is something you can do about it - see below for more information about what action you can take right now.

The words of Thomas Jefferson, one of the founding fathers of the United States of America who wrote the American Declaration of Independence to declare the independence of the United States from Britain because they did not want to accept Britain's currency that would need to be repaid to the Bank of England with interest, thereby enslaving the citizens of the country to bankers, and to state the principles of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness on which the USA was founded and which made it a great country before the corrupt bankers started running the country after the Federal Reserve Act establishing the control of the US's money supply by the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank was passed in 1913, are very relevant to the situation the ordinary citizens of every country in the world now face: “Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God.”

These words echo the words of Jesus in the New Testament, who said that it is impossible to honour both God and mammon, as he called the ego and its creations; we must choose which we serve and serve only that master. If you are tempted by your ego to dismiss everything you have read as mere ‘conspiracy theory’, remember what Edward Mandell had to say about plausible deniability of the plot they were fomenting against the American people and bear in mind Jesus' warning, also from A Course in Miracles, about the price for faith in the ego and its creations: “In suffering, the price for faith in it is so immense that crucifixion of the Son of God is offered daily at its darkened shrine and blood must flow before the altar where its sickly followers prepare for death.”

Whatever you believe about what you have just read, I challenge you to do your own research and ascertain the truth or falsity of what I have said yourself by visiting some of the web sites given below and doing some searching on the Internet (because you will not find the truth in the mainstream media controlled by the same psychopaths who created the current dysfunctional financial and legal system).

Then ask yourself what reality you want to believe in and what kind of world this belief would create, and make your choice wisely, because by it do you either crucify yourself or honour the eternal call of your heart to be peaceful, happy and free, and thereby make your contribution either to the enslavement and suffering of humankind under the oppressive authority of a 'New World Order' or its transformation and liberation that will create a Brave New World you will be proud to leave as a gift to your children, their children and all future generations yet to come.

This article was written by Jonathan Quail, a spiritual teacher, inspirational speaker, life coach, transformational facilitator and the founder of Lifebuild - click here to find out more information about him now. If you want to find out what you can do to stop literally buying into a sick system that is extorting money from you, draining your life energy and that of other people and slowly destroying the natural environment on this planet, click here to sign up to receive a series of emails and get access to information and resources that will help you to learn what you can do to free yourself from fraudulent debt, taxes and tolls.

If you live in or around Johannesburg and you resonated with the above article, you will enjoy coming to the launch of the new Lifebuild community on Monday the 2nd of May (a public holiday) at the Shanthi Sanctuary in Bedfordview to find out more about what you can do to free yourself from unfair debt and taxes and be inspired to overcome your fear of doing it and by Lifebuild's vision of a truly sustainable and fair economic and social system for a new 'Wisdom Age' - see the events schedule that came attached to the same email as this article for more information about this event.

If you can't come to this presentation, have a look at the following web sites for more information about what this article is about and search on Google for other sites that contain helpful information:

www.prisonplanet.tv

www.infowars.com

www.zeitgeistmovie.com
